

Travel & more

SAPUTARA BLISS

03 NIGHTS / 04 DAYS

Day 1: ARRIVE SAPUTARA - (Lunch, Dinner)

Welcome to the West Coast part of India, on arrival at the Mumbai airport or railway station, begin your tour of 'Saputara - Where Nature Resides'. Shortly proceed on a drive to Saputara, the charming & the only hill station on the border of Maharashtra & Gujarat.

Owing to its stunning view, lively location and cool climate, Saputara offers backdrop of lushing greenery and charming surroundings. It has marvellous waterfalls and the place is ideal for watching sunrise and sunset.

On arrival, check into your hotel.

Rest of the evening is at leisure.

Overnight in Saputara.

Day 2 : AT SAPUTARA - (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Today after breakfast visit Saputara lake a serene and secluded picnic spot, placed right at the heartland of Saputara valley. The lake is on the base of Saputara hill station and is placed perfectly on the picturesque hilly surroundings. One can simultaneously enjoy Lake Garden, a nicely maintained beautiful garden on the banks of the Saputara Lake, if interested you may visit Honey Bees Centre located near the Lake Garden, a site in Saputara where pure honey is extracted from natural resources. Followed by that visit Saputara museum for an introduction to the lifestyle, costumes, heritage and ecology of the tribal Dangs.

Lastly witness an awesome view of Sunset point the spectacular attraction of Gandhi Shikhar, one can reach this marvellous sunset point by using the ropeway (cable car on direct payment basis) or by climbing the hills. This point provides a breath taking view of the surrounding tribal villages in their natural splendour and also an aerial view of wide spans of Dang Forest.

Rest of the evening is at leisure.

Overnight in Saputara.

Day 3 : AT SAPUTARA - (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Early morning at 6:00 visit to Sunrise Point, and then the same road twirls up to the Echo Point, back to hotel for breakfast. Later to that The Vandsa National Park where one can spot an Indian tiger. Followed by Waghai Botanical Garden, garden with variety of plants and trees is located nearby. This is an amazing park providing a marvellous view of different varieties of Bamboo trees. A real nature lover will cherish the visit to Waghai. Fun doesn't end here visit Gira Falls which is located on the green hilly area which gives a quite impression of a paradise on earth. This is one of the most fabulous Falls of India.

Rest of the evening is at leisure.

Overnight in Saputara.

Travel & more

Day 4 : DEPART SAPUTARA * RETURN HOME WITH HAPPY MEMORIES

Today early morning visit Governor's Hill as you walk through this open expanse in the early hours of the day, you experience a mysterious dance of light slowly caressing life into the world. You have an amazing view of the valleys, streams and rivulets, and on your right you can see a railing demarking the Gujarat-Maharashtra border. Later visit Hatgadh fort let you to have a great view of the surrounding areas. This fort just shows you the enriched beauty of Sahyadri Hills. The beauty and calmness of Fort would fill you with great pleasure and delight. On your way to Hatgadh Fort you have to travel through a narrow passage that is carved with the rocky terrains. (Breakfast)