

AUSTRIAN JEWELS 06 NIGHTS / 07 DAYS

DESTINATION DETAILS

Innsbruck:

Innsbruck, Europe's oldest city in the state of Tyrol is situated in between the German and the Italian border. With its historic churches, monuments, museums, galleries and scenic atmosphere, Innsbruck has gained the reputation as being an impressive Austrian holiday destination.

Must See

Goldenes Dachl (Golden Roof) - Amidst the charming Old Town, a classic Austrian hybrid of Gothic and Baroque, you will find Innsbruck's greatest tourist attraction and certainly it's most characteristic landmark: The Golden Roof.

Triumphal Arch (Triumphforte) - Situated on the southern end of the Maria Theresia Strasse, Triumphforte is a famous tourist attraction commissioned by Maria Theresia on the death of her husband.

Stadtturm (Town Tower) - The 148 spiral steps of the tower take you to a viewing platform that offers a 360o panoramic view over the rooftops of Innsbruck and the medieval city center.

Imperial Palace / Hofburg - One of the most important historic buildings in the city, this former palace of Maximilian I stands as a testament to the great ruler's reign.

Alpenzoo (Alpine Zoo) - The biggest zoo in Europe, Alpenzoo is located on the southern slope of the Hungerburg plateau. It is a home to around 2000 different species.

Swarovski Crystal World - A magical world you haven't even imagined! The Chamber of Wonders containing the Planet of Crystal, the Crystal Dome, the Crystal Theater, the Ice Passage and the Floating Poem.

The Sightseer - Bus which takes you around Innsbruck.

Salzburg:

Framed by mountains, crowned by the Hohensalzburg Fortress and divided by the turquoise Salzach River, the landscape of Salzburg is pure drama. Stroll the tangled lanes of Salzburg's Old Town, a World Heritage Site, to discover your own favorite things about this most Austrian of cities.

Must See

Travel & more

Mozart birthplace & living place - The house in which baby Mozart was born in 1756, and the one he used to live and work in later, hosts a popular museum today.

Salzburger Dom - The city's cathedral - The dom in all it's Baroque glory was opened in 1628 and has proved to be Salzburg's top attraction ever since.

Hellbrunn Palace, park & trick Fountains - Hellbrunn castle with its trick fountains was the Prince Archbishop's private passion. A lavish Baroque masterpiece.

Mirabell Palace and Gardens - You haven't seen the Mozartstadt until you have strolled along the gardens of Mirabell Palace. Modern Salzburg's city hall is still as attractive as it was when Fräulein Maria and the Trapp children danced between thousands of flowers around it.

Hohensalzburg Fortress - Largest, fully-preserved fortress in central Europe. The medieval princes' apartments and the Fortress Museum are of particular interest.

Sound of Music - Relive the true story of the Von Trapp family which was filmed as the "The Sound of Music" in the Salzburg area.

Accommodation

AustrianTours offers a choice of various 3, 4 and 5 star hotels as well as more than 31 apartments.

Vienna:

Vienna, the capital of Austria, is situated on the banks of the Danube. A romantically imperial city, Vienna is a dream city for anyone with a romantic streak or an interest in history. Sightseeing opportunities are to be found in abundance.

Must See

Schönbrunn Palace - The Palace with its surrounding buildings and the huge park is one of the most significant cultural monuments in Austria. It was generally used as the summer residence of the Habsburg rulers.

Schönbrunn Zoo - World's oldest and only baroque zoo. The Schönbrunn Zoo is situated in the south-eastern part of the Habsburgs' summer residence and was built in 1760.

St. Stephen's Cathedral - Situated in the city centre, this cathedral has been the heart of Vienna. It is one of the most famous Viennese sights and was built in 1147.

Spanish Riding School - Oldest and last Riding School in the world where classic dressage is still practiced in its purest form. This Institute was founded in 1572.

Naschmarkt - There is quite a number of markets where you can buy fresh vegetable and assorted tidbits. But Naschmarkt is arguably more than that: it is a Viennese institution dating back to the 16th century.

Travel & more

Prater - Vienna's most popular fun fair. Here one can enjoy a great view from the giant Ferris wheel and relax in the surrounding forest land and fields.

Belvedere Palace - The two magnificent palaces on the Belvedere grounds lie in the middle of a splendid park. Today, both palaces house museums featuring Austrian painting.

Haas House - One of the most exciting buildings in Vienna and the city's pride. Images of St. Stephen's Cathedral reflected by the straight glass facade of Haas House are a popular motif.
